Pay and Allowances

The Westminster Bank is in a position to receive military pay and allowances, and to credit these to any of its branches upon the necessary instructions from an Officer to his Command Paymaster. Amongst its less familiar capacities, the Bank is able to arrange periodical payments by Agents abroad, and conversely to receive money sent from overseas for forming a capital basis which is secure and accessible. It will also undertake regular payments at home such as club subscriptions, insurance premiums, and school fees, and will accept Powers of Attorney to deal with customers' investments during absence abroad.

Information may be had from the Manager of the Aldershot Branch or from any other Branch which may be convenient

"We have had an opportunity of testing a sample of this device, and our experience showed that the petrol consumption can be improved varying in our case from 18 and 19 per cent.; this is according to the traffic conditions and speed . . . The device is quite a practical one, and has proved satisfactory in use. It is well made and nicely finished."

HISTORY OF THE GREAT WAR BASED ON OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS

Military Operations EGYPT PALESTINE

By

Lieut.-General SIR GEORGE MACMUNN, K.C.B., K.C.S.I., D.S.O., and

Capt. CYRIL FALLS.

Egypt early became of vital military importance if only from the necessity of defending the Suez Canal and the route to India. The history of the operations in this theatre possesses a very great interest, not only to those who took part in the events narrated, but also to all students of military history at home and overseas. The first volume has now been published as part of the Official History of the Great War.

It covers a period of nearly three years, from the outbreak of the war with Germany to June 1917, when, after deadlock had followed the Second Battle of Gaza, the War Cabinet decided upon the invasion of Palestine.

It thus includes an account not only of the preliminary defence of Egypt against invasion and the expulsion of the enemy from the Sinai Peninsula, but also of the First and Second Battles of Gaza.

The authors have depended chiefly on official records and documents, but they have supplemented this from external and non-official sources. Among the latter it is of interest to record the criticism which some chapters have received from the present Prime Minister of Iraq, who commanded the troops of the Senussi against the British in 1915 and 1916.

The maps bound in the volume are sufficient to enable the general reader to follow the trend of events. For the benefit of specialist students a separate case of maps and plans is provided. The volume is fully illustrated with photographs, some of which are panoramic and give an excellent idea of the country encountered.

Vol. I. Price 12s. 6d. net. Postage 9d. extra.

ARMY LIST

FOR

JULY, 1929.

NOTICES.

Under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, Section 103(d), this Army List is evidence of the status and rank of the officers mentioned in it.

No Army List, except this List and the Half-Yearly List and their Supplements, is authorised by the War Office.

The words subscribed to the titles of regiments, as "Peninsula," "Waterloo," "Neuve Chapelle," &c., denote the Honours awarded to such regiments in commemoration of their services. Those printed in heavy type are borne on their Standards or Colours, or, in the case of regiments having no Standards or Colours, on their Appointments.

Officers whose names are printed in italics are on the supernumerary or seconded lists.

In regimental lists of Foot Guards and Infantry an officer's battalion is indicated by a number in elliptical brackets, e.g. (2), after his name; a number enclosed in square brackets, e.g. [2], denotes that the officer is attached and not posted.

Communications from officers of the Militia, Territorial Army and Supplementary Reserve regarding the entry in this publication (a) of letters denoting military qualifications, and (b) of the symbol \times denoting War Service, should be forwarded through the usual official channels. Other communications regarding alterations, errors, or omissions should be addressed direct as follows:—

THE UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE,

Army List.

The War Office, London, S.W.1.

Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies, or courtesy titles are responsible for immediately notifying the fact to the Under-Secretary of State, The War Office, in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the Army List and in the official records of the War Office.

ARMY AGENTS.
